Last Saturday, someone threw a cake at the Monalisa in the Botero Museum in Bogota, Colombia. There were four eyewitnesses. What did they say? Read the following, and find the criminal.

Ann Jones, a visitor

I was looking at the Monalisa, and someone threw a cake at the painting. I turned around and saw an old man. (A) He was standing in front of a wheelchair. I'm about 170 cm tall, and (B) he was a little taller than me.

Carlos Diaz, a janitor

An old man with gray hair (C) was running away, and something (D) fell off his head. (B) It was his wig. I ran after (E) him, but I couldn't catch him. He was (F) more faster than me. In fact, the old man was not old. (G) He was a young man with long brown hair.

Diego Perez, a guard

I went to the crime scene, and (H) there were pieces of cake all over the painting. (C) There was also a wheelchair near the painting, and I found a cake box next to the wheelchair. (D)

Camila Santos, the owner of Camila's Bakery

Last Friday, (I) a young man came in. I spoke to him in Spanish, but he didn't understand (J) me. He spoke only English. (E) We had a lot of different cakes, but he just wanted (K) the most smallest one. We sold only one cake that day, (L) so I remember him clearly. Oh, he had blue eyes.
